SPEAKERS

DR RICHARD HARRIS

Dr Richard "Harry" Harris is an anaesthesia and aeromedical retrieval medic.

He has expertise in diving, wilderness and remote area health. He has a professional and voluntary interest in search and rescue operations, establishing the first sump rescue (deep, scary caves) training course in Australasia. The 2018 Thailand Cave Rescue was an opportunity to put this training to work. He is the 2019 Australian of the Year for South Australia and the joint 2019 Australian of the Year with his dive partner Craig Challen.

RACHAEL ROBERTSON

Rachael Robertson is the keynote speaker of choice for events looking for practical leadership and teamwork tools, built on a fascinating and inspirational true story of leadership in the world's most extreme workplace: Antarctica.

As well as being an Antarctic expedition leader, Rachel Robertson is also a best selling author and is Australia's pre-eminent authority on extreme leadership.

LISA ANNESE

Lisa Annese has been the Chief Executive Officer of Diversity Council Australia since 2 June 2014. In this role, she leads the debate on diversity and inclusion in the public arena. Lisa has led a broad array of ground-breaking, evidence-based research, including Australia's first national index on workplace diversity and inclusion, seminal research on the economics of the gender pay-gap and research supporting individuals being "Out at Work" and main-streaming flexible work. Lisa will discuss how operators can bolster their bottom line through diversity.

DINNER ENTERTAINMENT

TITUS O'REILY

Known as 'the voice of Australia's working class' despite the fact he long lost touch with them and in the main, reality, Titus' lightning quick, clever and hilarious insights on sport and AFL have in addition to his loyal social media following earned him regular appearances on TV and radio.

MATT HETHERINGTON

Matt Hetherington is Australia's premier corporate entertainer.

He has performed at some of Australia's largest events and entertained some of our country's biggest companies, sporting legends and even Prime Ministers.

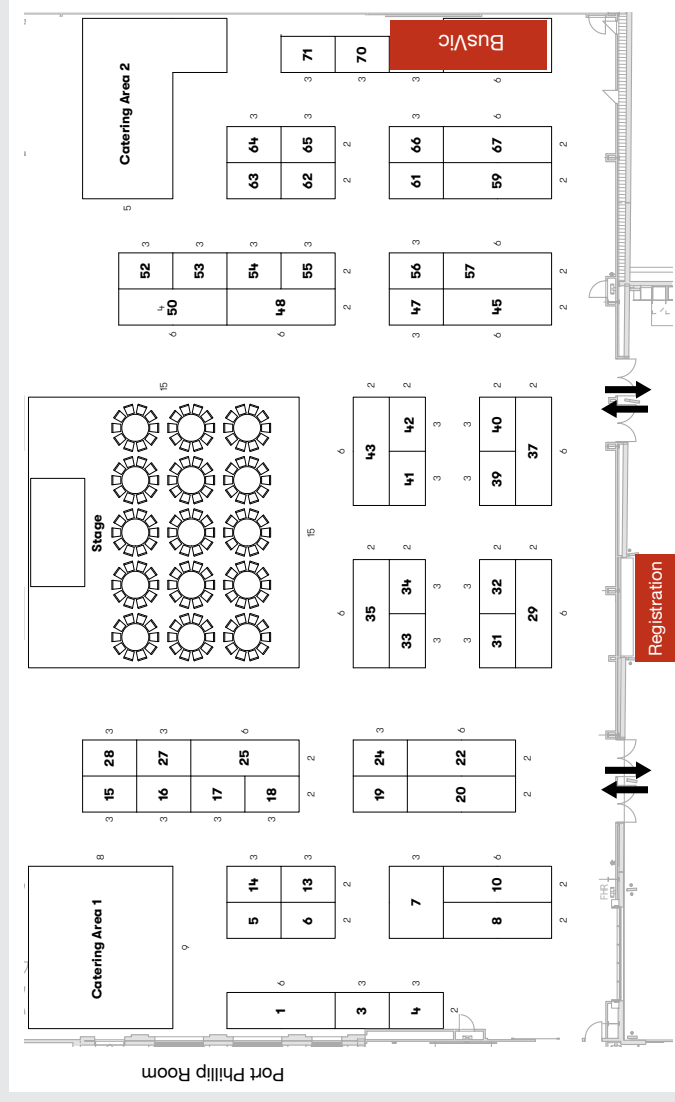

THE THREE WAITERS

The original act of its kind in Australia, this multi-award winning show continues to surprise and captivate unsuspecting audiences across the globe as three charming performers hoax as 'real' waiters before taking centre stage for a dynamic, sophisticated and humorous presentation a la The Three Tenors.
